

Slow Food®

Slow Food Travel Training

Connecting rural traditional products and tourism in Montenegro:
the experience of Slow Food in the Balkans and the Slow Food Travel model

Bijelo Polje, 17 of April 2019

1st part - Training

- 09:30 – 10:00 Introduction to Slow Food and Slow Food Travel
Michele Rumiz - Slow Food Travel Director
- 10:00 – 10:30 Introduction to sustainable tourism and the definition of gastronomic and cultural tours for the EU markets
Eugenio Berra - Slow Food Travel consultant & sustainable tourism itinerary designer
- 10:30 – 11:00 Sustainable rural development through tourism in remote areas of the Balkans – the case of Kelmend, Albania
Anna Carboni - ONG VIS Project Manager
- 11:00 - 11:30 Sustainable rural tourism in Montenegro
Sabina Ramovic – leader of Slow Food Bijelasica, Komovi & Prokletje, RAMS Travel Agency
- 11:30 – 11:50 Coffee Break

2nd part – participative workshop

- 11:50 – 12:10 Participative analysis of the gastronomic heritage
- 12:10 – 12:30 Participative stakeholder analyses
- 12:30 – 12:50 “Slow Food” experiences in rural Montenegro – joint identification of possible experiences
- 12:50 – 13:15 Open discussion, Q&A
- 13:15 – 14:30 Lunch break
- 14:30 – 15:30 “Slow Food” experiences in practice - Visit to Vucko Pesic farm
- 15:30 – 16:00 Wrap up and conclusions

Workshop will be available both in English and Montenegrin language, through consecutive translation.